Thomas, of Erceldoune, called the Rhymer, 1220?-1297?
The romance and prophecies of Thomas of Erceldoune ... 1875. (Card 2)

The poem, "Tomas off Erceldoune" with its prophecies relating to the future of Scotland. The editor places its completion about 1401, or one hundred years after the death of Thomas. It is difficult to say whether it even claims to be his work. Portions of it may be earlier than 1400, and may be based on an older tale composed by Thomas himself. cf. Introd.

"Appendice: Texte des 482 derniers vers du Padouan, auteur de la première partie de l'Entrée de Spagne", p. ‹51›–64.

The authorship of the "Entrée" had been ascribed to one "Nicolas de Padoue" by Gautier, Epopées françaises, t. III. In the present treatise it is shown that the first part is by an anonymous writer who states that he is of Padua (Minocchio?) and that the second part including the "Prise de Pampelune" is by Nicolas of Verona, the author of the "Passion".

History of the First Kentucky brigade. By Ed. Porter Thompson. Cincinnati, Caxton pub. house, 1868.

The designation of the brigade as "First Kentucky" is unofficial. It was organized in 1861, later divided into two brigades, which were afterwards reunited. Probably more often known by name of its successive commanders; and the author entitles the edition of 1895 "History of the Orphan brigade".
Besides general history of the organization, the work contains sketches, with roster and biographies, of the following: 2d, 4th, 5th, 6th, and 9th infantry regiments, and Byrne's and Cobb's batteries of artillery.

Thompson, Henry Yates, 1838– A descriptive catalogue of twenty illuminated manuscripts ... 1907. (Card 2)

"Since the publication ... of the Descriptive catalogue of my illuminated manuscripts in 1898 and 1902, I have ... found it expedient not to increase the number of these precious books in my library beyond the one hundred therein described. My plan has been never to buy any additional volume unless it was decidedly superior in value and interest to one at least of my original hundred and upon its acquisition to discard the least fascinating of the said hundred."—Pref.

[Thomson, Charles, 1729–1824.

An enquiry into the causes of the alienation of the Delaware and Shawanese Indians from the British interest, and into the measures taken for recovering their friendship. Extracted from the public treaties, and other authentic papers relating to the transactions of the government of Pensilvania and the said Indians, for near forty years; and explained by a map of the country. Together with the remarkable Journal of Christian Frederic Post, by whose negotiations, among the Indians on the Ohio, they were withdrawn from the interest

A Yankee in Canada, with Anti-slavery and reform papers. By Henry D. Thoreau. Boston, Ticknor and Fields, 1866.

First edition, edited by Sophia Thoreau and W. H. Channing.
The first three chapters appeared in Putnam's magazine 1858 under the title of "Excursion to Canada".
"Prayers" was attributed to Thoreau by mistake, only a prayer in verse included being his. The essay itself, first published in the Dial, is by Emerson and is now published in his Natural history of the intellect.
